"In the Day's News"

Today is the sixty-eighth birthday of the Most Rev. Samuel P. Mathewson, Anglican Archbishop of Rupert's Land and Primate of All Canada. Archbishop Mathewson was born in Manitoba and is a descendant of the Selkirk settlers. His education was received in Toronto. Following his ordination in 1876 he filled various pastorates in western Canada and in 1903 was consecrated first bishop of Rupert's Land. In 1904 he became bishop of the diocese and a year later was elected fourth archbishop and metropolitan. In 1909 he was elected by the House of Bishops to be Primate of All Canada. Archbishop Mathewson has been described as the most commanding of all the Canadian prelates in point of physique, being of 6 feet in height. He is possessed of a powerful voice and has a wide reputation as a preacher.

"And Caim and Peaceful Be Thy Sleep—"

Olen Meeker was detained in town Sunday night, reason not given, until quite late. While driving home he went to sleep and on the road collided with the lumber wagon of some farmer who was presumably starting out on his day's work. Olen's buggy was overturned, but aside from waking him up he suffered no injuries and he soon righted the buggy and started out again. Another man who met him a quarter of a mile on down the road says that Olen was asleep when he passed him. —Brown's Creek Item.
